Senator John Kerry and Lieutenant Governor Tim Murray to join Alliance to Develop Power Community Convention

- Who: Alliance to Develop Power
500 Grassroots community leaders, faith, business and labor leaders
Senator Kerry, Lieutenant Governor Tim Murray, elected and public officials
- What: Alliance to Develop Power/ADP Community Convention.
- When: Tuesday, October 28, 2008 6:45 – 8:45 pm
- Where: St. Jude's Roman Catholic Church
221 Main St., Indian Orchard, MA
- WHY: Grassroots community leaders will gather together to demand change at the ballot box in 2008 and policy change in 2009. Community members who are directly affected will provide testimony and discuss solutions with public and elected officials on such issues as: creating an economy that works for everyone, just and humane immigration reform and an end to the raids, the abuse of workers in our region, preserving and expanding affordable housing, civil rights of youth, access to quality education and health care for all.

ADP leaders will present over 3,000 signatures on the Community Values Pledge and call upon elected officials to sign it and stand up against the politics of division.
